The Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

MELTER AND REFINER'S DEPARTMENT,

May 18th, 1887.

Professor Booth,

Dear Sir:

I am truly sorry that you are sick abroad, and regret that I have not had the pleasure of meeting you. A Sunday school scholar, a young girl, 19 years of age, died yesterday, and will be buried from the church on Friday. Her people are regular attendants, and are greatly in need of pecuniary assistance to give her burial. I promised to help them, and to this end I would be thankful to you for your mite. You can send it to me at 3-21 River St. Hoping to see you out soon,

I am yours truly,

H. M. Busch.

Prof. James E. Booth.